There are several options available below. Please go through them carefully and select the one that best fits for your answer.

What best describes your interest in voice over?

Select one of these answers and copy and paste it into your email:

I'm just curious.

People say I have a nice voice.

I've wanted to do this for years.

I'm tired of sitting still - I'm ready to go.

I want a new career.

I want to get into radio.

I have read everything, bought everything I need. Now I need coaching.

I need you to make me a star.

I tried to do it without a coach and it's not working very well.

I've joined a VO database and auditioned with no success.

I simply want a new hobby and this looked cool.

I understand voice over is expensive – In the first year, I figure with training, demos, equipment, computer needs and other expenses I'll spend...

Select one of these answers and copy and paste it into your email:

$100 to $500

$500 to $1500

$2000 to $4000

Nothing - I'm just curious.

I don't really understand the costs involved.

I have an idea of what everything costs, but I need to know the order to do it in.

I've been given a lot of numbers and I think I might be getting ripped off.

Someone offered to train me in a weekend and record my demo for a few thousand dollars.

I'm well aware of what this business costs and I'm prepared to make my move in it.
